Project Idea: Illustrate a Simile!

Choose a familiar saying or think of a new one, as described on the book's last page. Below is a list of twenty familiar similes that are not in the book.

as big as a house	huge as clear as mud	not understandable as different as night and day	not alike at all as easy as pie	simple as flat as a pancake	totally flat as honest as the day is long	trustworthy as old as the hills	very old as red as a beet	embarrassed as sweet as honey	especially nice as tough as nails	rugged babbles like a brook	talks a great deal built like a tank	sturdy cuts like butter	easily cut hurts like the dickens	painful like a bump on a log	lazy lives like a pig	is messy needs it like a hole in the head	doesn't want it out like a light	sound asleep sings like an angel	sings well treated like a dog	treated poorly
